Raftsman's Journal Bob Bodger, boys, were seated upon the a sat of the Free Press office, a day or steps incomaving disposed of their stock in wie, and feeling inclined to enjoy the genial heat a April sun as it poured down bright and warm upon their resting place. The profits of the day's work were counted over, and the conversation, in a confidenttal way, gradnally turned upon the respective merits of the several dailies of the city. Both agreed that the Free Press went off three to one when compared to the others, and young enthusiast the gallusest paper in the whole country." At this emphatic expression of opinion, his friend Bob administered a severe poke in the ribs, accompanied with "Ah ha! swere'd, did ye; give me that cent now." Upon inquiry we found that a bargain had been ratified, by which each of the friends had agreed to pay the other a cent every time he swore. Dodger demurred in this case, however, on the and, the dispute waxing warm, the matter was apply to the subscriber on the premises. ground that "dog derned" wasn't swearing, referred to a clerical looking young man, who passed at the moment, who decided that it was swearing, and, seeing the cent paid over, inquired the nature of the arrangement. It was duly explained, with the additional information that during last week, Dodger got ten cents ahead. This evidence of a desire for reformation pleased the meek young gentleman very much, and he patted the unctious Dodger on the head with "Good boy, good boy-what did you do with the money-give it to your mother? put it in the charity box? send it to the missicnaries?"

"Mis-sion-a-ries!" replied the indignant Dodger, contemptuously, "Bob won it all back, playing "old sledge" last Schday ?"-Detroit Free Press.

The finest idea of a thunder storm extract was when Viggins came home tight. Now Viggins is a teacher, and had been to a temperance meeting, and had taken too much lemonade, or something. He came in the room among his wife and daughters, and just then he tumbled over the cradle and fell whop upon the floor. After a while he rose and "Wife, are you hurt?" "No."

"Girls, are you hurt?"

"No."

"Terrible clap, wasn't it?"

A Good REMEDY .- The local editor of the Lynchburgh Virginian, publishes the following, and says he has tried it and found it a good remedy :- "To cure a pain in the breast, procure a well made silk or woolen dress-with an equally well constructed woman inside of it -and press close to the part affected. Repeat per; fancy and common envelopes; blank Deeds; he application till the pain ceases. This recipe, when the directions are carefully observed, has rarely been known to fail to effect a cure. The medicine is found in almost every household, and may possibly cost a trifle.'

We find the following capital parody on Mc-Kay's "Tell me, ye winged winds ?" is going

Tell me, ye winged winds, That round my pathway roar, Do ye not know some spot Where women fret no more? Some lone and pleasant dell, Some "holler in the ground," Where babies never yell, And cradles are not found?

The loud wind blew the snow into his face. And snickered as it answered, "Nary place."

SPIDERS GETTING RABID .- Spiders seem to have run mad this year. The women folks will need to use their brooms unsparingly at the corners of their rooms and extirpate the dangerous creatures. We learn from the Boston papers of Saturday a-week that Miss Sarah J. Colbourn, of Chaplin, Ct., died on Tuesg of last week from the bite of a black spi-7-the third death this season from the same ause. The chewing of catnip and binding he bruised herb upon the wound, is said to be a perfect antidote. CURIOUS ENTRY .- In the parish register of Suckley is the following whimsical verse, which must be read down and up alternately : There and I'm one and he

Mole hills are curiously formed by an outer arch impervious to rain, and an internal platform with drains, and covered ways on which the pair and young resides. The moles live on worms and roots, and bury themselves in any soil in a few minutes.

How many fond mothers and frugal housewives keep their pretty daughters and their preserves for some extra occasion, or some "big bug" or other, until both turn sour! This seems to us marvelously poor economy.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues. FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach. DR. J. C. AYEZ. Sir: I have been repeatedly cared of the worst headache any body can have by a does or two the worst reaments any basis can make by a week of two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.
Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Billous Disorders and Liver Complaints. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERPOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856. Six: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you rade them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,

Physician of the Marine Hospital. Dysentery, Relax, and Worms. POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. Co., MICH., Nov. 16, 1855. Dr. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. hey have done my wife more good than I can tell you. he had been sick and pining away for months. Went She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be dectored at great expense, but got no letter. She then commenced taking your Pilis, which soon cursd har, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cursed har and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cursed him with two doses of your Pilis, while others around as paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and tost much time, without being cursed entirely contracting the state of the stat

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood. JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D. Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum. From a Fraueding Merchant of S. Lonis, Fis. 4, 1856. Dr. Aver.: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievous yafficted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGAIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout. From the Rev. Dr. Hawles, of the Methodist Epis. Church. PULASE: House, Savannan, Ga., Jan. C. 1856.
Honored Sir: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you.
A cold settled in my limbs and brought on exernciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism.
Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excel-lent agelf in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzia, I tried your Fills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

Dr. Aven: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumstic Gout — a painful discose that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL. For Dropsy, Plethorn, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excel-lent remedy.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them, some living trephy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formit dable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals, upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the Charant Protonat saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorder, and as they know too the vitnes of this rem my, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no teil to produce it the most perfect pescible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.
